

Assignments for the Week of: January 06, 2020

ELA / 8

Monday:

No School: Professional Development

Homework: NA

Tuesday:

Warm-Up:

- Students will review concepts / skills needed to have successfully completed the Midterm Exam.

Activities:

- Students will review genres covered on the Midterm Exam.
- Students will discuss strategies used to answer questions and formulate reasons why some of their answers were incorrect.
- Students will review strategies used to complete analogies.
- With a shoulder partner, students will create two analogy problems, solve them, and present their analogies to the class.

Homework: NA

Wednesday:

Warm-Up: Students will recite new vocabulary from Wordly Wise Lesson 4.

Activities:

- Students will learn new vocabulary by completing varied activities from Wordly Wise Lesson 4.

Homework: NA

Thursday:

Warm-Up:

- Students will review the 9 Parts of Speech.

Activities:

- Students will create a “Language Sandwich” of the 9 Parts of Speech; a template will be provided.
- Using their “Language Sandwich”, students will create a graphic organizer (“A Day at the Beach”) incorporating the 9 Parts of Speech and using the beach as the theme.

Homework: NA

Friday:

Warm-Up:

- Students will continue discussions on the 9 Parts of Speech.

Activities:

- Students will continue working on “A Day at the Beach”.
- If time permits, students will present their graphic organizers to the class.

Homework: NA

Dear THRS Family,

I hope that your Winter Break was a restful, yet invigorating time for you.

My holiday was memorable, as I enjoyed quality time with family and friends.

This semester will be filled with some “old favorites” (vocabulary, writing, analogies . . . Yeah!), but will also offer new stories, new writing prompts, and new strategies for continued growth as accomplished ELA students.

Extremely fortunate to be your 7/8 ELA Teacher,

Ms. Mena

