

“The Tiger’s Heart”

- 1) The setting of the story is
 - a) village in Alaska
 - b) village in Africa
 - c) village in jungle in tropical America
 - d) village in India

- 2) What was the night considered a time of?
 - a) celebration
 - b) fear
 - c) prayer
 - d) fighting

- 3) One example of suspense is
 - a) Pepe bargaining
 - b) Aria looking for goat
 - c) Pepe clearing land
 - d) goat bleating in fear

- 4) Why was Pepe not afraid of the jungle animals?
 - a) He lived in a big house.
 - b) He had a fence around his property.
 - c) He had no goats.
 - d) He had a rifle.

- 5) What does Aria say killed his goat?
 - a) a fox
 - b) the devil
 - c) a lion
 - d) a rhino

- 6) What does Aria pay Pepe to kill the tiger?
 - a) $100
 - b) two kids and a goat
 - c) two goats and a kid
 - d) three billygoats

- 7) What did Pepe become when he went into the jungle?
 - a) a cat
 - b) afraid
 - c) agitated
 - d) alert

8) What do the villagers imagine at night?

- a) demons
- b) ghosts
- c) horrible creatures
- d) land free of tigers

9) What does Pepe look for in the jungle?

- a) drops of blood and hair
- b) tracks
- c) snapped twigs
- d) carrions

10) What happens to Pepe's gun?

- a) backfires
- b) misloaded
- c) jams
- d) no bullets

11) How does Pepe defend himself?

- a) rifle
- b) bow and arrow
- c) saw
- d) machete

12) Why doesn't Pepe tell the villagers what really happened?

- a) He's afraid.
- b) He might lose his rifle.
- c) He wants to remain supreme.
- d) He is too proud.

13) What does Pepe do when he's not hunting?

- a) farms
- b) clears land for roads
- c) drives a taxi
- d) fisherman

14) Describe the village and its occupants.